Profile: I am a 30-plus year veteran journalist, who has just completed a semester-long web development apprentice program through Barren County Skills Development Academy. I am seeking work that will allow me to mesh the skills I learned from working in the newspaper industry with those I have learned in the apprenticeship.

Qualifications: I have excellent writing and communication skills. I can work with a team or independently. I have studied HTML5, CSS3, SASS, Bootstrap, JavaScript and React web design programs in the apprenticeship. I also have experience with PhotoShop CS4 and CS6, PhotoShop Elements, Photos, iMovie, Quark for ios10, NewsEdit Pro, and OpenOffice. I also have social media experience with Facebook and Twitter.

Employment History: Reporter, Bowling Green Daily News -- July 2020 to present; Reporter/Photographer, Glasgow Daily Times -- February 1999 to June 8, 2020; Reporter/photographer, Tompkinsville News -- March 1993 to February 1999; Reporter/photographer, Glasgow Daily Times -- December 1989 to March 1993

Education: Barren County Skills Development Academy's Web Design Apprenticeship, 507 Trojan Trail, Glasgow, KY., December 2020; Western Kentucky University, 1906 College Heights Boulevard, Bowling Green, KY., Bachelor of Arts Degree in Journalism, December 1989; Spring Woods Senior High School, 2045 Gessner Road, Houston, Texas, high school diploma, May 1985; plus numerous Kentucky Press Association workshops over the years as part of my continuing education and several on-line coding workshops and tutorials
